

The Fallen

~verse I~

Don't hide, the light inside your eyes
Don't fear, or ever compromise cause we all fall down
Fall down

It's ok, to make the odd mistake cause we all fall down
Fall down

~bridge I~

Don't you know that we all fall down
Don't you know that we all fall down

~verse II~

Sometimes, the future seems so grey
But those times, you should never run away cause we all fall down
Fall down

Keep trying, and hold on to your faith cause we all fall down
Fall down

~bridge II~

Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)
Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)

~chorus I~

So be who you've got to be
Feel the mercury rising
And see that you follow your dreams
Don't let anyone take them away

~bridge III~

Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)
Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)

~solo~

~bridge IV~

Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)
Don't you know that we all fall down (falling, falling, falling)

~chorus II~

So be who you've got to be
Feel the mercury rising
And see that you follow your dreams
Don't let anyone take them away...
