

19 Mar 2006 - Guitar Break (Dave Kilminster lights up Guitar Break!) - UK

This weekend saw rock supremo Dave Kilminster make his first appearance with Guitar Break on the first event of 2006.

With Neville Marten and Jason Sidwell at his side, Dave provided the guests with an intensive and stimulating workout. His patience, energy and infectious love for his craft certainly left a huge impression on all the guests.

From posture and relaxation techniques to the coolest of blues and rock moves, this weekend had all you need to improve one's ability and confidence.

This Rock/Blues event at Bailbrook House, Bath was the second level 2/3 course that Guitar Break have produced and Dave K has certainly made it one to remember.

Here's what one of the guests had to say:

"Dave Kilminster is such an amazing guitarist, it was worth the booking fee to watch the things he can play. He is also a natural teacher who is just happy to help you, as are Neville and Jason."
